What time is it around the world?

Narrator: Once upon a time, in San Francisco, there was a big black cat called Frisco who wanted to know the time all over the world. He took his new smartphone and called his friends all over the world.

Frisco: Hello, Tom, Frisco speaking! What time is it in New York?
Tom: Hello Frisco, it’s ten o’clock in New York! It’s school time!

Tom: Tell me Frisco! What time is it in San Francisco?
Frisco: It’s seven o’clock in San Francisco, it’s breakfast time!

Frisco: Hello, Mary, Frisco speaking! What time is it in London?
Mary: Hello Frisco, it’s three o’clock in the afternoon in London. It’s school time, too!

Frisco: Hello, Louise, Frisco speaking! What time is it in Paris?
Louise: Hello Frisco, it’s four o’clock in the afternoon in Paris. It’s teatime!

Frisco: Hello, Sacha, Frisco speaking! What time is it in Moscow?
Sacha: Hello Frisco, it’s six o’clock in the evening in Moscow. It’s dinnertime!

Frisco: Hello, Cate, Frisco speaking! What time is it in Sydney?
Cate: Hey Frisco, you’re silly, it’s the middle of the night here in Sydney. It’s midnight, you know! It’s bedtime!
Frisco: Oops! I’m sorry, Cate. Please, go back to sleep! Sleep well, sweet dreams!
